

We are BSP. We are Community.

At Bank South Pacific (BSP), giving back to the community is part of our culture. We respect, value and support the communities in which we operate.

In everything we do, we strive to be a good corporate citizen and encourage all employees to volunteer and lend a helping hand where and when they can. Our commitment to the community is evident in a variety of ways.

We deliver Community Projects, we sponsor worthy organisations and initiatives, we donate to causes that make a difference, we teach children to Go Green and we also go out and teach people, young and old, how to manage money better. We also bring banking a step closer to communities.

We are not just a Bank and not just a Brand. We are people, we are culture, we are friends, we are changing lives. We are BSP. We are Community.

We don't just teach people how to save, we set up Agents in their communities, so they don't have to travel far to deposit money. Menyama, Morobe Province.

Whether it's teaching people how to manage money, using the right product and service or opening new accounts for children, students and adults...we go to where our customers are - even if it means enduring rugged terrain. Here are some highlights:

- BSP in partnership with Bank of Papua New Guinea's Microfinance Expansion Project (MEP) is delivering training in savings, budgeting and mobile money.

- Banking education includes offering the right products and services for people in remote areas. The Kundu Standard has no monthly fees, is 'pay as you go' and has Mobile Banking banking access.
- BSP has 291 Agents across PNG that provide basic banking. BSP also has 42 Sub Branches. The BSP eco-system is a community service and saves people time, money and effort. They bank closer to home.
- BSP is also rolling out Financial Literacy in the Solomon Islands. And we are rolling out Agents in countries we operate. Our Agents are given training.
